MAPS AND PLATS.

Photolithographic copies of plats representing Government surveys and general topography, in townships 6 miles square or fractions thereof, scale 2 inches to the mile in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, and the other States west of the Mississippi River, except Texas, can usually be furnished by this office at a cost of 25 cents each. When, for any reason, photolithographs are not available, tracings can be prepared and furnished at a cost of $1 each and upward, according to size, topography, etc. Tracings and all other copies may be certified, the extra charge being 35 cents each or per township, which includes the 10-cent internal revenue stamp which must be affixed to each certificate.

The above copies do not show lands subject to entry, if any, which data will be furnished by the registers and receivers of the local United States land offices, when the current work of the particular office will permit, at $1 per township. No county maps are published by this office, and blue prints can not be made of mounted township plats.

Maps of the public-land States, scale 12 miles to the inch—except that of Michigan, 16 miles to the inch—are sold by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, this city, at 25 cents each, except that of California, which is printed in two-sheet form, and costs 50 cents. The Superintendent of Documents, at above address, also sells an Alaska map at 25 cents, and a large wall map of the United States at a cost of $1. Copies of the United States map are delivered to Congress for free distribution.

A circular giving prices of post-route maps of all the States may be obtained from the Chief Disbursing Clerk, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

Topographic maps are published by the Geological Survey. Circulars as to the cost of same may be obtained from the Director of the Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.
